THERE ARE REASONS TO PURCHASE HUNTING CLUB LIABILITY INSURANCE?

Whether you are a member of a hunting club or a landowner leasing to a hunt club, liability insurance is essential. This is because both parties assume a degree of legal risk. Landowners have a duty to guests, those paying to hunt (leaseholders or clients) and, to a lesser degree, trespassers. Hunters need liability insurance to protect themselves, other members of their hunting group, and even guests against acts for which they could be held legally responsible. It is simply not worth the risk of your personal assets or financial security for an unfortunate accident or acts of others on the property you hunt.

The OIC Hunt Club Insurance Policy is designed to cover the clubs and its' members for liability resulting from bodily injury or property damage to third parties, for which the club or member is legally liable, subject to policy exclusions.

- Named Insured's: The scheduled participants of the OIC Hunt Club Insurance Program
- Additional Insured's: Scheduled landowner(s) who leases land to hunt club(s)
- Liability limits:
 - ❖ $1 Million per Occurrence / $2 Million General Aggregate

 - ❖ No Deductibles
- Club Members are shown by endorsement as Additional Insured's
- Coverage is provided for cross member liability
- The use of ATV's and tree stands is included under the policy

FAQ

What period does the policy cover and is premium preredated?

The policy runs from August 1 to August 1 each year. Rates will be prorated if you purchase a policy in midyear.

Does a hunt club have to be a formal entity including bylaws?

No, any group of hunters can purchase coverage, but a hunting club name must be provided to identify who is included in coverage.

Does the landowner have to be named as an additional insured on the policy?

Yes, they need to be named. Most landowners require the hunting club to endorse them on the policy as an additional insured, to provide protection against legal actions resulting from activities of the club. For multiple landowners, each landowner would have to be named as an additional insured. If the land is owned by a company, family trust, or other legal entity it would need to be endorsed as additional insured.

What are some exclusions of the policy?

Some examples of exclusions include; bodily injury or property damage arising from the use of vehicles, aircraft, pollution, worker's compensation, assault and battery, intentional or expected acts and commercial hunting operations.

Can some commercial hunting operation or owned land used for hunting be insured?

Lands that are subleased or used for any commercial hunting activities are not eligible for coverage in the program. Separate liability coverage can be purchased by completing the appropriate application. Call for further information; 866-695-9040.

The insurance application must be fully completed and all questions must be answered.
